

All You Need To Know Going Into Trade On April 13

Bloomberg | Quint Bloomberg Quint 13 April 2018

The Smarter way to get your business news - Subscribe to BloombergQuint on WhatsApp

Asian stocks built on this week's advance after signs that trade tensions are easing boosted risk appetite. Equities from Sydney to Hong Kong advanced though U.S. stock futures slipped.

The Singapore-traded SGX Nifty, an early indicator of NSE Nifty 50 Index's performance in India, rose 0.4 percent to 10,496 as of 7:15 a.m.

Short on time? Well, then listen to this podcast for a quick summary of the article!

BQ Live

Here's a quick look at all that could influence equities on Friday.

Global Cues

- U.S. stocks gained and Treasuries retreated as President Donald Trump said he's considering rejoining the Trans-Pacific Partnership trade deal he pulled out of shortly after taking office.

#BQMarketsNow | U.S. stocks rise as President Trump shakes up trade landscape. <https://t.co/x53XHkuq8bpic.twitter.com/2v3QpfUPim>

— BloombergQuint (@BloombergQuint) April 13, 2018

Europe Check

European stocks climbed for the third time this week as investors' concerns over a conflict in the Middle East cooled and the euro's drop supported exporters.

- The euro sank 0.3 percent to $1.2325, the largest decrease in more than two weeks.
- The British pound rose 0.4 percent to $1.4226 on its fifth consecutive advance.
- Germany's 10-year yield climbed two basis points to 0.515 percent.
- Britain's 10-year yield gained seven basis points to 1.456 percent, the highest in three weeks.

Asian Cues

- Japan's Topix index climbed 0.6 percent as of 9:03 a.m. in Tokyo.
- Australia's S&P/ASX 200 Index gained 0.2 percent.

Story Continues

